- My Year In Trance – 99 Trance DJs interviewed at www.tranceawards.com
- Full details below of how you could be spinning at this year's Trance Awards Party!!

Over the last couple of Trance Award seasons, 'My Year in Trance' has become a hugely popular and enlightening, window into the world of your favourite DJ booth inhabitants. In the run-up to the start of this year's poll the Trance Awards team have once again been conducting their now-annual M.Y.I.T. interview-a-thon. Getting the down-low on every aspect of the DJs professional lives, as well as a few scrapes they've gotten themselves into, it's an invaluable reminder for you of everything they've been up to. This year they've outdone themselves by grilling 99 of the biggest deck operators in the world of trance. You can read about Jon O'Bir being accosted by the Manila Swine Flu Police, Matt Hardwick's close encounter with Carmen Electra and PVD ultimate rider request realized at www.tranceawards.com.

This year's poll comes to a mighty conclusion at the Ministry of Sound on October the 9th. Track It Down and The Gallery have already had a suitably large response to their search for 4 young DJ guns to play amongst the already established stars on the night. Yep, you read it right! It could be you up there spinning on the most famous club turntables in the world!

All you need to do to be in with a chance of nabbing one of those prized spots is to put your latest (and greatest!) DJ Mix in the post to:

Trance Awards DJ Mix Competition
Trackitdown Ltd
Tower Bridge Business Complex
K304
100 Clements Road
London
SE16 4DG

Don't forget your full contact details (including your name, e-mail address and day & night time telephone numbers) along with your entry. Winners will be judged on mixing and presentation and will be contacted shortly after the close of the poll. Please note: you must be able to get yourself to and from the event itself.

You can keep up to date with all the info on the Trance Awards and the competition by signing up for at their Facebook group. As they roll toward the climax it will be updated with info on the party and who's playing. You can join here:

General information on the T.A.'s:

Over the last 4 years the Trance Awards have become the decisive final word on whose is smashed it hardest in the scene over the preceding 12 months. With every aspect of the genre covered across its 13 categories, the Awards are now set to enter their 5th huge year as the 2009 voting gets underway at 11am (GMT) on the 1st of September.

Professional music producers, labels, DJs, radio presenters and event promoters from across the genre and around the globe have all been busily delivering their sounds over the last year. Now they're waiting with bated breath to find out exactly how you think they've performed!

Launched by TrackItDown.net, The Trance Awards gives each and every one of you the chance to have your say. Whether you're an avid clubber or at-home music listener, a budding bedroom DJ or 24/7 studio-hound, this is your chance to let your thoughts be known.

Last year tens of thousands of you spoke... At the 2008 awards Paul van Dyk walked away with the Best DJ trophy, while other winners included Tiësto (who took home Best Remixer), Armin who scooped Best Resident and Sied van Riel who arrived in pole position for Best New Face.

In another new 'first' this year the event will be commemorated with a special Trance Awards edition of the 'Euphoria' compilation series. Featuring the best music from past winners, the double CD album will be out (just prior to the ceremony) on the 5th of October thru Ministry of Sound.

So trance nation at large... your time is now! Head over to www.tranceawards.com, hit up the voting page and tell the world who and what have been tickling your eardrums over the last 12 months!
